

ELA Centers Choice Menu

<h2>Iread</h2> Set a timer and work on Iread for 30 minutes. 	<h2>Raz Kids</h2> Read to Self on Raz Kids! Read for 20 minutes. 	<h2>Tumble Books</h2> Spend 30 minutes listening to reading on Tumble Book.
<h2>Word Work</h2> Get your journal out and practice writing suffixes with “ed”. 	<h2>Trick Words</h2> In your journal, write as many different summer words as you can think of...example, swim, hot, vacation, etc. 	<h2>Book Talk</h2> In your journal, write the title of a book. Write characteristics of one of the characters in the story.
<h2>Technology</h2> Free choice app on iPad. 	<h2>Work on Writing</h2> If you could make one rule in your house what would it be? 	<h2>Silly Questions</h2> If dogs could talk, what would they say?

Finished? Now What?

If you are finished with you menu and you have extra time you can do more listen to reading, read to self, make a comic strip about a book, write a story, rainbow write your trick words, or create a trick word game and challenge a friend. Can you come up with any other reading or writing ideas?